2. Quorum. A majority of Directors shall constitute a quorum.
3. Executive Committee. The Board may elect to create an Executive Committee comprised of the five Officers of the Society. The Executive Committee shall be authorized to act on behalf of the Board and exercise the full powers of the Board between meetings or in case of urgent situations requiring immediate responses. All actions taken by the Executive Committee are to be reported to the Board for ratification at the next Board meeting. The Executive Committee may not override the decisions of the Board.

VI. D. Board Fiscal Considerations:

1. Indemnification of Officers and Directors. The Society shall indemnify its officers and directors to the full extent permitted by Alabama Nonprofit Corporation Law.
2. Fiscal Year. Unless otherwise authorized by a majority vote of the Society's membership, the period from July 1 through June 30 shall constitute the Society's fiscal year.

ARTICLE VII. Committees

VII. A. Standing Committees:

The President, with approval of the Board, will appoint the Chair of each of the Standing Committees unless otherwise designated by the By-laws. The Chair of a Committee shall serve a term of two years. A Committee Chair shall be eligible to serve a second consecutive two-year term.

Standing Committee charges and membership are determined by the Board and enumerated in the Society's Policy and procedure Manual.

1. Finance Committee. General Duties: exercise oversight of the overall financial affairs of the society; develop, monitor and make recommendations to the Board regarding the current operating budget; prepare and submit to the Board and membership, the operating budget for the subsequent fiscal year for presentation to and approval by the Society at the Annual Meeting. Monitor the Society's investments and make recommendations regarding those investments to the Board. Ensure compliance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).

2. Membership Committee. General Duties: solicit and review applications from prospective members; determine eligibility; and forward applications with recommendations to the Society Board of Directors for election to membership. Implement strategies to foster member engagement.
3. Program Committee. General Duties: plan the content for the Annual and/or Other Meetings; lead the planning, development and evaluation of any other periodic or ongoing educational and programmatic initiatives for the membership; carry out other tasks as assigned by the Board of Directors.
4. Scholarship Committee. General Duties: work in three subcommittees to 1) assess and report on the status of the discipline; 2) build capacity to conduct and enhance research by research scholars, CPD consumers and to establish institutional scholarly environment; and 3) develop and conduct research.
5. Communications Committee. General Duties: recommend policies to leadership regarding strategies to guide and maintain membership communications and communication channels (e.g., the Intercom newsletter, the Society listserv, the Society Website, membership recruitment brochures, etc.).
6. Strategic Affairs Committee. General Duties: Provide support and guidance to the Board regarding strategic direction, planning and management for the Society.

vii. B. Special Committees:

1. Awards Committee. General Duties: The Immediate Past President shall be the Chair of the Awards Committee. The composition of the Awards Committee shall be determined by the Board.
2. Nominations Committee. General Duties: The Immediate Past President shall be the Chair of the Nominations Committee. The composition of the Nominations Committee shall be determined by the Board.
3. Special Committees. The President may, with the consent of the Board, appoint special committees as needed to accomplish a specific task or set of tasks. Any such appointment shall include a specific charge for the committee.

VII. C. Other Appointed Positions

The President may with the approval of the Board appoint members to represent SACME to other entities for a defined period not to exceed two consecutive terms of two years each.

ARTICLE VIII. Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of the Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the Society in all cases to which they are applicable and consistent with these Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX. Distribution of Assets

Upon the dissolution of the Society, the Board of Directors, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Society and after assets held by the Society upon conditions requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reasons of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements, shall dispose of all of the assets of the Society exclusively for the purpose of the Society in such a manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, education, religious, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Society is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE X. Amendment of Bylaws

These Bylaws may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the Society, provided that the amendment has been submitted in writing to the membership at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of that vote.

Voting members who will not attend a meeting, at which one or more Bylaw amendments will be voted on, may submit an absentee ballot. That ballot will be received and counted as long as it is received no later than seven (7) days prior to the meeting. No proxy voting is permitted for amendments to the Bylaws.

Voting may occur outside of formal meetings of the Society, for example in the case of an electronic ballot; however, in such cases, a window of no less than 14 days may be provided between the times that ballots are available and voting is closed.

ARTICLE XI. Seal

The Board of Directors shall maintain a corporate seal, which shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed therein the name of the Society and the words "Corporate Seal. Alabama."

ARTICLE XII. Waiver of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Alabama Nonprofit Society Act or under the provisions of the Articles of the Society or the Bylaws of the Society, a waiver thereof in writing or by Board authorized electronic means, and signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE XIII. Books and Records

The Society shall maintain all records and books of account pursuant to all state and federal legislation in a form consistent with the requirements of such agencies.

All such records and books of account ought to be retained according to the records disposition schedule as approved by the Board, and must be made available as needed for any internal or external audit or examination.

The records of incorporation, minutes of all Annual, Other, and Special Meetings, Board Committees and Task Forces, and records of promotions and activities approved by the voting membership should, on a regular basis, be sent to a location as approved by the voting membership to constitute the Society's archives.
